

QUESTIONS COVERING MICAH

Chapter 1

1. During the days of what kings of Judah did Micah prophecy?
2. To whom did he prophecy?
3. Explain the language employed by Micah in vv. 3-4.
4. What is the transgression of Jacob?
5. What will God do to Samaria?
6. What does the idea of "stripped and naked" convey about what was to take place?

Chapter 2

1. What does it mean to devise iniquity upon their beds? (2:1).
2. How does v. 2, compare to Isaiah 1:16, 17, 23?
3. According to vv. 3-5, what can those who oppressed others expect?
4. What is the attitude of those who have defrauded others toward the prophets? (v. 6)
5. What hope do they have according to vv. 12-13?

Chapter 3

1. How had they perverted justice (v. 2)?
2. Can people reach a point that God will not be available for them when they seek Him? (v. 4).
3. What does God say to the prophets who make His people err? (v. 5-7).
4. What does Micah say about himself in v. 8?
5. What will happen to Zion and Jerusalem?

Chapter 4

1. Vs 1 predicts something that will happen "in the latter days." When are those days?
2. What passage in Isaiah is similar to this context?
3. What was to be established on the top of the mountains?

4. What would go forth out of Zion?
5. According to v. 6-8, God would do something for the lame and those who are afflicted. What is the meaning conveyed by the prophet here?
6. Into what country does Micah predict the daughter of Zion would go?
7. From what town would the ruler of Israel come?

Chapter 5

1. What passage in the N.T. makes reference back to Micah 5:2?
2. What will the remnant of Jacob be like? (v. 7-8)
3. In that day God will cut off what? (vv. 10-13).

Chapter 6

1. Chapter 6:1-ff, presents a scene where God calls upon the people to present their case much like a court scene. Of what can they accuse God?
2. Verses 6-7, convey the people's response to God. What can be given to God that He needs to appease His anger?
3. What does God require of men? (v. 8).
4. In vv. 9-12, God presents His case against the people. Of what does He charge them?
5. As a result of their sins, what is going to come to them?

Chapter 7

1. In chapter 7:1-6, Micah speaks for Jerusalem. How does he respond to God's charge?
2. Then in vv. 7-13, Micah speaks for the spiritual remnant of God's people. What does he mean by "I will wait for the God of my salvation?"
3. They will be rescued from captivity -- compare Isaiah 11:10-16.
4. In vv. 14-16, Micah relays a prayer from the remnant. For what do they ask?
5. Verses 18-20 form a doxology. How is God praised? How does this give hope?
6. What will God give to Jacob and Abraham? Upon what basis could the prophet expect the promises to Jacob and Abraham to come to pass? -- compare Hebrews 6:13-20.